

Come Thou Long Expected Jesus
Waiting with Isaiah
Isaiah 9:1-7

Question: For what, or for whom are we waiting?

I. For One Who Brings Light into our Darkness of Gloom (1-2)
~ see Mt. 4:12-17

II. For One Who Brings Celebration, Liberation, and Pacification (3-5)

III. For a Child Born to Us - Bringing Peace without End (6-7)

Point to Ponder: This child born to us is the King to end all kings. He will undo all that is wrong with this world; he will take away all the gloom to which we have grown accustomed. Why would we be waiting for anyone else?

Next Week: Next Sunday morning we will continue our sermon series Come Thou Long Expected Jesus by considering Jeremiah 23:1-6 'Waiting with Jeremiah.'
